SUIT OVER LAND IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Case of Dolbear vs. Akers Will Probably Occupy Oil of Today.

In the civil superior court on Tuesday the case of Sidney A. Dolbear vs. David L. Akers was started and it is probable that it will occupy the day today. It is a suit concerning land in Salem and is for a note of $1,000, farm products and interest in addition to the amount of $352.75.

Mr. Dolbear sold a farm to Mr. Akers for $300 of the $300 was agreed upon. The farm is located at Gardner Lake. After the $300 had been paid Mr. Akers found that the telephone company had a pole right across the land, about which he was not told, and he has an offset against the Dolbear claim of $1,200. Mr. Akers claimed that Mr. Dolbear stated that he would give him a cow and that there were 1,000 lbs on the farm, which consists of about 170 acres, of which about thirty acres are arable. Mr. Akers was on the stand under cross examination when court adjourned until this morning. He said he considered the place to be worth only $1,800.

SWATZBURG'S BONDS INCREASED TO THE SUM OF $15,000.

Unable to Secure Bail, Case Having Been Continued to June 11 by Request of Counsel.

When Joseph Swatzburg, Jr., was presented before court on Wednesday morning, charged with getting money under false pretenses on three counts, his counsel, Arthur Shields and Thayer, asked for a continuance, as they had but just been called into the matter, and it was decided to continue the case until June 11.

When the matter of fixing a bond came up City Attorney Hall asked that it be fixed at $10,000, stating that the accused had a home in the city, much property and diamonds over which there is trouble, and that he has no money. The court, however, set a bond of $10,000, and Judge Brown decided to fix the bonds in each count at $500, making the total $1,500. He was unable to get a bondsman during the day or night and remained at police station for the second night.

D. Goss, who was charged with stealing a hammer, was taken in charge of the police, and will be held in the city jail until the next morning.

STOCK COMPANY TO RUN BALL TEAM.

Norwich Athletic Association Formed—$2,000 Capital Stock—Better Local Support Wanted.

Hereafter the Norwich baseball team is to be owned by the Norwich Athletic association, as the men who have been running it so far have incorporated under that name, filing their papers with the town clerk. The new stock company is formed for the purpose of promoting all indoor and outdoor sports, including football, baseball, etc., and to have attendance at the games at Sachem park has been below that of the other teams in the circuit, but it is expected to come up to the expectations of the promoters. They have provided a ball team that is worth supporting and now it remains for the citizens to do the rest.

Eighty-six Years Young.

Wednesday was the 86th birthday of Ellis Raphael, who was born in London, England. He is doubtless one of the oldest citizens in the state, and is as young today as he was 20 years ago, thoroughly interested in current events and a public spirited citizen. He is in fine health and at his place of business, being as active as any of his circle.
